It is delivered to B, who accepts the offer. There is a contract unless B knows or has reason to know of A's error. . . .

Rest. 2d Contracts § 20. Effect of Misunderstanding.

Illustration 5. A says to B, "I offer to sell you my horse for $100." B, knowing that A intends to offer to sell his cow for that price, not his horse, and that the word "horse" is a slip of the tongue, replies, "I accept." The price is a fair one for either the horse or the cow. There is a contract for the sale of the cow and not of the horse. . . .
